

Honorable Dr. K.S. Rao, Minister of Textiles, Government of India visited North Temperate Regional Station (CSWRI), Garsa.

Honorable Dr. K.S. Rao, Minister of Textiles, Government of India visited North Temperate Regional Station (CSWRI), Garsa (Distt. Kulu, H.P.) on 26.10.2013. During his maiden visit, he was accompanied by Mr. S.S. Gupta, Development Commissioner, Handy Crafts and Mr. K.K. Goyal, Executive Director, Central Wool Development Board and other dignitaries of the District Administration. Prof. J.B. Phogat, Head, NTRS, Garsa welcomed the Honorable Minister and other dignitaries at the station and coordinated the visit programme. They visited the sheep and Angora rabbit sectors and were apprised about the on going research and development activities related to sheep and Angora rabbit at the station and services provided by the station to the local farmers of the region. Honorable Minister spoke to scientists and staff members of the station and appreciated their role in development and propagation of fine wool sheep breed and Angora rabbit at the centre and in the hilly region.

