Daily Report on Swachhta Pakhwada – Day 8 – 23.12.2019

Kisan Diwas is celebrated every year to commemorate birth anniversary of the 5th Prime Minister of India, Shri Chaudhary Charan Singh. CSWRI celebrated Kisan Diwas (Farmer's Day) - today, as a part of action plan for Swachhata Pakhwada (16th-31st December, 2019). Kisan diwas was celebrated with full spirit by inviting the farmers of nearby villages of the Institute. Kisan Goshthis were organized in which the scientists and farmers shared the knowledge on various aspect of farming and technologies developed at the Institute. A rally was undertaken in the CSWRI campus to spread the awareness on cleanliness and environmental pollution created by plastics. After the rally, a workshop was conducted in which Dr. Ragavendra Singh, Director told about the importance of kisan diwas and Swachha Bharat Mission. He also felicitated six farmers by giving memento for their exemplary initiatives on swachhta. Head of the divisions and InCharge of various sections were also highlighted the importance of cleanliness and eradication of use of plastic during their speech. Farmers from villages namely Laxmipura, Tantiya and Ganeshpura shared their experiences on cleanliness and the volunteered to spread the message of cleanliness in their villages. Farmers and CSWRI employees totalling to 185 persons participated in the rally and kisan diwas day workshop and benefitted out of the programme.
